Hurricane Sandy Delinquency "C.O.D" List and Price Posting Relief - Posted 11/01/2012

HURRICANE SANDY DELINQUENCY “C.O.D.” LIST AND PRICE POSTING RELIEF

Due to the large volume of reports regarding wholesalers and retailers being unable to properly conduct their business affairs due to the effects of Hurricane Sandy the SLA will employ discretion in delinquent (“C.O.D.”) list cases as follows:

- Retailers will have an additional 5 business days to tender payment for liquor and wine invoices featuring delivery dates of September 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th and October 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, thus making the new final payment dates for them November 5th (for deliveries made on September 27th, 28th, and 29th) and November 7th (for deliveries made on September 30th and October 1st, 2nd and 3rd), respectively. Beer invoices featuring delivery dates of October 15th through October 28th will have a new final payment date of November 19th.

- Likewise, delinquent (C.O.D.) list reporting for wholesalers will be pushed back an additional 5 business days so that liquor and wine invoices with final payment dates of November 5th and November 7th will now have a C.O.D. list notification date of November 15th. Beer invoices with a final payment date of November 19th will have a C.O.D. list notification date of November 26th.

Additionally, due to the effects of Hurricane Sandy and in an effort to allow sufficient time for processing, the certification deadline for posting of prices to the December wine-to-retail and liquor-to-retail schedules has been extended from November 5th to November 9th. Neither the price posting viewing date (November 15th) nor the amendment period dates (November 16th through 20th) will be impacted by this extension.

Hurricane Sandy Relief for Retailers - Posted 10/29/2012

In an effort to offset the loss of the final 2 days of wholesale liquor and wine sales at October pricing due to the effects of Hurricane Sandy, wholesalers of liquor and wine may accept retailer orders at either October or November prices on November 1st and 2nd as long as deliveries of all sales at October prices are made by COB on Monday, November 5th.
