KEG REGISTRATION LAW EXPIRES

On November 22, 2010, New York's Keg Registration Law expired. Licensees who sell beer at retail for off-premises consumption are no longer required to document and track keg sales on State Liquor Authority forms or collect the state mandated deposit. Licensees may still have their own deposit requirements to encourage patrons to return empty kegs to the licensee.

ANNOUNCEMENT - DECEMBER ORDERS - Posted 11/3/2010

Pursuant to ABCL Sec. 101-b(3)(a) and 101-b(3)(b) the Authority hereby grants permission for wholesalers to accept orders for alcoholic beverages from retailers as late as January 3, 2011 at prices posted for December, 2010. All such orders for product at December 2010 prices are to be delivered to retail licensees by January 7, 2011.
