The NYSLA is strongly committed to protecting personal information collected through this website against unauthorized access, use or disclosure. Consequently, the NYSLA limits employee access to personal information collected through this website to only those employees who need access to the information in the performance of their official duties. Employees who have access to this information are required to follow appropriate procedures in connection with any disclosures of personal information.

In addition, the NYSLA has implemented procedures to safeguard the integrity of its information technology assets, including, but not limited to, authentication, monitoring, auditing, and encryption. These security procedures have been integrated into the design, implementation, and day-to-day operations of this website as part of our continuing commitment to the security of electronic content as well as the electronic transmission of information.

For website security purposes and to maintain the availability of the website for all users, the NYSLA employs software to monitor traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information or otherwise damage this website.
