STATE LIQUOR AUTHORITY ANNOUNCES RESULTS OF UNDERCOVER INVESTIGATION INTO UNDERAGE ALCOHOL SALES IN NEW YORK CITY
90 NYC Stores Caught Selling Alcohol to Minors by State Liquor Authority

The New York State Liquor Authority (SLA) today announced that a nine-day undercover investigation into underage alcohol sales has resulted in charges to 90 licensed groceries and liquor stores throughout New York City. The investigation is part of a coordinated enforcement action to prevent the sale of alcohol to minors statewide.

The investigation was conducted by the SLA from February 21 through March 3, 2013. SLA investigators sent volunteer underage decoys into 201 licensed groceries and liquor stores in all five boroughs of New York City. In total, the decoys were able to purchase alcohol at 90 of the premises, including 21 of 35 in the Bronx, 20 of 34 in Brooklyn, 29 of 84 in Manhattan, 14 of 42 in Queens, and 6 of 6 on Staten Island.

State Liquor Authority Chairman Dennis Rosen said, "Preventing the sale of alcohol to minors is a priority for the State Liquor Authority. These large scale enforcement efforts will continue to be a part of our proactive measures to prevent alcohol abuse among our youth."

Licensees charged by the SLA with underage sales face civil penalties of up to $10,000 per violation, with fines starting from $2,500 to $3,000 for a first time offense. Repeat offenders also face potential suspension or revocation of their licenses.

The businesses charged with sales to minors are:

The SLA regulates and controls the manufacture, sale, and distribution of alcoholic beverages within the state. The SLA works with local law enforcement agencies and localities across the state to ensure compliance with the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law. In addition, the SLA issues and renews licenses and permits to manufacturers, distributors, wholesalers, and retailers of alcoholic beverages.
