Dear Wine Library:

The State Liquor Authority is in receipt of information that you are selling and shipping alcoholic beverages into New York State.

Section 102, Subdivision 1(a), of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law states: "Except as provided in section seventy-nine-c of this chapter, no alcoholic beverages shall be shipped into the state unless the same shall be consigned to a person duly licensed hereunder to traffic in alcoholic beverages. This prohibition shall apply to all shipments of alcoholic beverages into New York State and includes importation or distribution for commercial purposes, for personal use, or otherwise and irrespective of whether such alcoholic beverages were purchased within or without the state, provided, however, this prohibition shall not apply to any shipment consigned to a New York resident who has personally purchased alcoholic beverages for his personal use while outside the United States for a minimum period of forty-eight consecutive hours and which has shipped as a consignor to himself as consignee. Purchases made outside the United States by persons other than the purchaser himself, regardless whether made as his agent, or by his authorization or on his behalf, are deemed not to have been personally purchased within the meaning of this paragraph."

In view of the above, you are directed to immediately cease and desist selling and shipping alcoholic beverages into New York State.

If you wish to discuss this matter or have any questions you may reach me at 212-961-8342.

Sincerely,

JACQUELINE P. FLUG
COUNSEL TO THE AUTHORITY
