Free Training Seminar for On-Premises Licensees Wednesday, September 22, 2010

The Empire State Restaurant & Tavern Association is hosting a free Alcoholic Beverage Control Law seminar for bars, restaurants, nightclub owners and their staffs to be conducted in conjunction with the NYS Liquor Authority on Wednesday, September 22, 2010 at the West Lake Inn, located at 322 Main Street in Patchogue, from 9:00 am until 2:30 pm. Refreshments and lunch will be provided by Clare Rose Distributors.

This training seminar will provide information on licensing and compliance issues vital to licensees, managers and servers to insure compliance with law. This morning session focuses on a licensee's and their servers' responsibilities regarding prohibited sales to minors and as well as visibly intoxicated patrons and provides the benefit of affirmative defense. Upon completion of the morning session participants will be issued a certification under the Alcohol Awareness Training Program (ATAP). The afternoon session focuses on the responsibilities of licensees in maintaining a premise that is in compliance with the Alcoholic Beverage Control law. It covers topics of interest to licensees and managers of on-premises licensees.

Licensees and their staff wishing to take advantage of this free training, as well as, meet with SLA officials to ask questions or discuss other concerns can pre-register by calling toll-free 877-436-8121, or by faxing the form below to 518-436-7287, or by sending an email to esrta@verizon.net.
