Re: Request for a Declaratory Ruling on 200 Foot Law.

Dear Members of the Authority:

I write on behalf of my client, Boroughs After Hours, LLC. Boroughs After Hours, LLC currently holds a beer and wine license and is in good standing with the NYSLA. My client would now like to apply for a full-on premise license but seeks a ruling in regards to a 200 Foot Law matter before doing so.

I submit the following to the Members of the Authority:

- The Glorious Church of God, Inc. is located on the corner of Halsey and Marcus Garvey Blvd at 363 Halsey Street, Brooklyn NY 11233.
- Boroughs after Hours, LLC is located at 417 Marcus Garvey Blvd, Brooklyn, NY 11216.
- Glorious Church of God, Inc. does have a door within 200 feet of Boroughs after Hours, but this door is not in use.
- Glorious Church of God, Inc. uses as its public and main entry door, a door that is located over 200 feet away from the entrance to Boroughs After Hours.

In light of the above, we seek a declaratory ruling on the distance between Glorious Church of God, Inc. and Boroughs After Hours for the purpose of my client obtaining a full-on premise liquor license.

Sincerely,

Vivian Tozaki, Esq.
Attorney for Boroughs After Hours, LLC
