Free Training Seminar for On-Premises Licensees Thursday, June 17, 2010

The Nassau County District Attorney's Office is hosting a free Alcoholic Beverage Control Law seminar for bars, restaurants, night club owners to be conducted by the Empire State Restaurant Tavern Owners Association in conjunction with the NYS Liquor Authority on Thursday, June 17, 2010 at the Nassau Community College located at 1 Education Drive, Garden City, New York from 10:00am until 3:00pm.

This training seminar will provide information on licensing and compliance issues vital to licensees, managers and servers to insure compliance with law. Upon completion of this seminar, licensees and staff will be issued a certification under the Alcohol Awareness Training Program (ATAP). This training focuses on a licensee's responsibilities regarding prohibited sales to minors and as well as visibly intoxicated patrons and provides the benefit of affirmative defense.

Licensees and their staff wishing to take advantage of this free training, as well as, meet with SLA officials to ask questions or discuss other concerns can pre-register by calling 518-486-4767 or email freetraining@abc.state.ny.us or fax the registration form below to 518-402-4015. Space is limited so sign up early to reserve your seat.
