Free Training Seminar for On-Premises Licensees Friday, April 17, 2009

The New York State Liquor Authority is hosting a free training seminar for current licensees entitled "The ABC's of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law." Scott Wexler, Executive Director of the Empire State Restaurant & Tavern Association (ESRTA), will provide instruction on Friday, April 17, 2009, at John Jay College, located at 445 West 59th Street in Manhattan, 9:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.

The ABC law program was developed by ESRTA with the assistance of the State Liquor Authority to provide owners, managers, and key staff of licensed premises with the information needed to comply with the law.

The training covers every aspect of running a responsible establishment.
This session will also include presentations by the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles and the New York State Department of State.

Pre-registration is required. If you or your employees would like to take advantage of this opportunity please call 518-486-4701 or e-mail freetraining@abc.state.ny.us to register or fax the registration form below to 518-402-4015.
