Free Training Seminar for On-Premises Licensees and Servers

The Empire State Restaurant & Tavern Association is hosting a free Alcoholic Beverage Control Law seminar for bars, restaurants and tavern owners and a free Alcohol Training Awareness Program (ATAP) for servers to be conducted in conjunction with the NYS Liquor Authority on Monday, May 16, 2011 at the Cove Restaurant at Charles Point, located at 5 John Walsh Boulevard in Peekskill, from 9:30 am until 3:30pm. Light refreshments will be provided through sponsorship by D. Bertoline & Sons.

The morning section of the seminar focuses on licensees' and servers' responsibilities regarding prohibited sales to minors and visibly intoxicated patrons. Upon completion of this session licensees and staff will be issued a certification under the Alcohol Awareness Training Program (ATAP). The afternoon section will provide information on licensing and compliance issues vital to licensees, managers and key employees to insure compliance with the law. Licensees and their staff wishing to take advantage of this free training, as well as, meet with SLA officials to ask questions or discuss other concerns can pre-register by calling toll-free 877-436-8121, or by faxing the form below to 518-436-7287, or by sending an email to esrta@verizon.net.
